

SECTION 21. ADMINISTRATIVE LEAVE

21-1. Authorized uses of administrative leave. The CAO may grant administrative leave to an employee:

- (a) in a general emergency;
- (b) when an unhealthy or dangerous situation exists at a County facility;
- (c) who is relieved of duty pending:
 - (1) an investigation of an incident or charge;
 - (2) removal from the employee's position; or
 - (3) a determination of the employee's fitness for duty;
- (d) to attend officially approved meetings, conferences, seminars, or training, or as paid professional improvement leave;
- (e) subpoenaed as a witness in a civil or criminal case or an administrative proceeding, unless the employee is subpoenaed as a witness in a civil case:
 - (1) that is unrelated to the employee's official duties; and
 - (2) to which the employee is a party;
- (f) required to serve on a jury;
- (g) for bereavement, under Section 21-2 of these Regulations;
- (h) for military service or military training under Section 22 of these Regulations; and
- (i) under other circumstances where the CAO determines that granting administrative leave is in the best interest of the County.

21-2. Limits on administrative leave for bereavement.

- (a) The CAO may grant administrative leave to an employee who has experienced the death of:
 - (1) a member of the employee's immediate family;

- (2) an individual who was related to the employee through blood or marriage;
or
 - (3) an individual with whom the employee had a close association that was the equivalent of a family relationship.
- (b) For each occasion, the maximum amount of administrative leave that an employee may use as bereavement leave is:
 - (1) 3 consecutive calendar days for a firefighter who works 24-hour shifts;
and
 - (2) 3 consecutive workdays for any other employee.

21-3. Appeal of administrative leave decision. An employee with merit system status who is adversely affected by an alleged improper, inequitable, or unfair application of the County's regulations and policies on administrative leave may file a grievance under Section 34 of these Regulations.
